

International Day

Theme: “Celebrating Diversity on Campus”

Terms & Conditions

1. The coordinator/group is not allowed to run two different stalls.
 2. The financial support from IR office will be Nu.3,000/- to invest in the stall which should be refunded to the IR office after the event within a week after 30th October. Furthermore from the net profit, 15% will be remitted to the college as funds for future student activities.
 3. The participants running the food stalls are expected to make the snacks/food by themselves and not cater from other vendors.
 4. The participants running the entertainment stalls are not allowed to have gambling activities.
 5. The event will function through purchase of coupon- the coupons will be sold by the IR office.
 6. The participants are highly encouraged to showcase stalls related to culture and tradition of Bhutan.
 7. The IR office encourages you to not invest a lot of money on the stalls as the IR office will not be responsible for any losses.
 8. If applicants have similar ideas on the stalls, the preference will be given to the applicants with originality, team that would make/produce food themselves or games that are creative.
-