

APPLICATION FORM

RTC-Centre College, RTC-University of Idaho & RTC-Erasmus+ Student Exchange Programmes Academic Year 2019-2020

(Applications are due to the International Relations Office staff by 5pm, Friday, March 8th, 2019)

Please read the exchange programme guidelines on the myRTC website (my.rtc.bt), which includes the Selection Criteria, Application Guidelines and Checklist sections.

Please also note the following:

- Applications which do not meet the specified criteria, incomplete application forms, or applications missing the required documents will not be processed.
- Last minute cancellation by the selected student will require reimbursing any expenditure already incurred to RTC via their guarantor. In this regard, students must sign an undertaking, nominating a parent/guardian as their guarantor.
- Applicants should obtain their passports at the earliest.
- After shortlisting, a simulated class and interview will be held.
- Selected candidates will be placed based on the programmes they qualify for and are interested in.

The application form together with supporting documents listed in the checklist must be submitted to the International Relations Office by 5 PM on Friday, March 8th, 2019.

For the Sections concerning Academic activities, Leadership, and other on- or off-campus Extra-Curricular Activities, please note each activity can only be used in one category. You must contact the coordinator of the activity and get their name and signature for each activity you are listing. If you are scheduled to do an event off campus during the academic year (such as a conference), you will need to attach the letter of invitation and your approved proposal for the event. Only activities during the duration of your studies at RTC will be accepted.

F. Leadership

Please check the following leadership roles that you have undertaken at RTC including those that have not been listed here. Please note that supporting documents/certificates have to be attached with your application form to prove your participation in such activities. If a student has completed an on-campus internship, they will need the signature of their supervisor. If the student has completed an off-campus internship, they will need a letter on official letterhead detailing the dates of the internship, position held, and the signature and contact details of a supervisor that can be contacted for verification of the position.
